MUSÉE HISTORIQUE de WELLAND

65 rue Hooker
Welland, Ont. L3C 5G9
(416) 732-2215

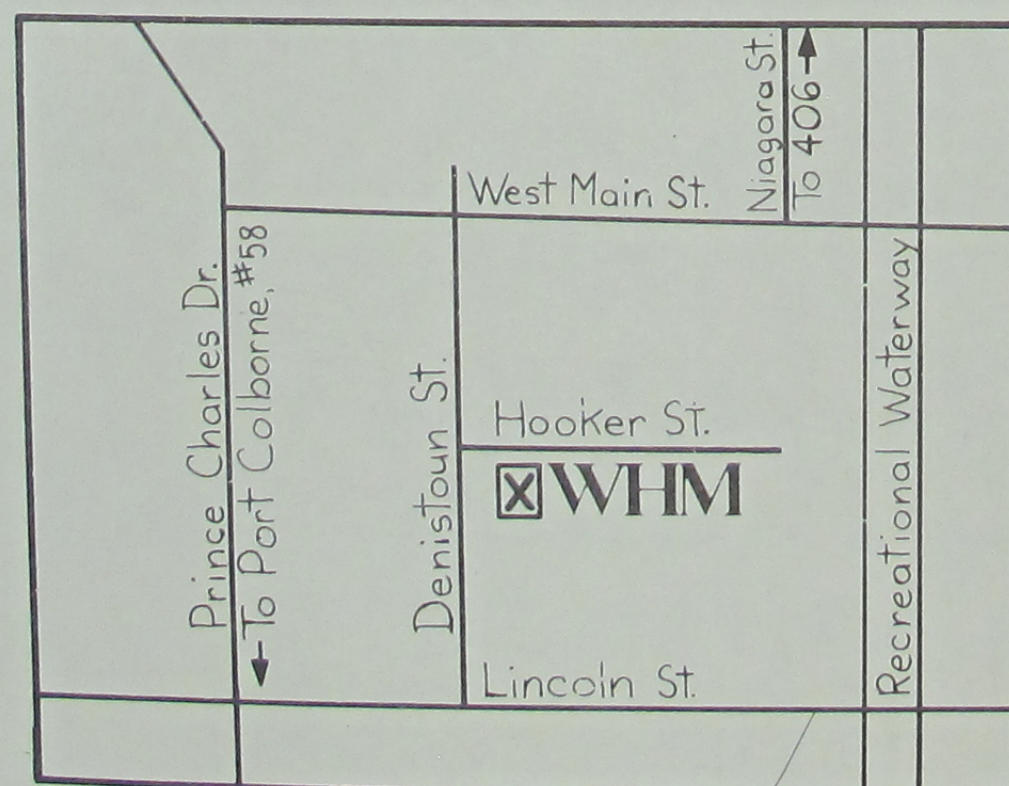

EMPLACEMENT

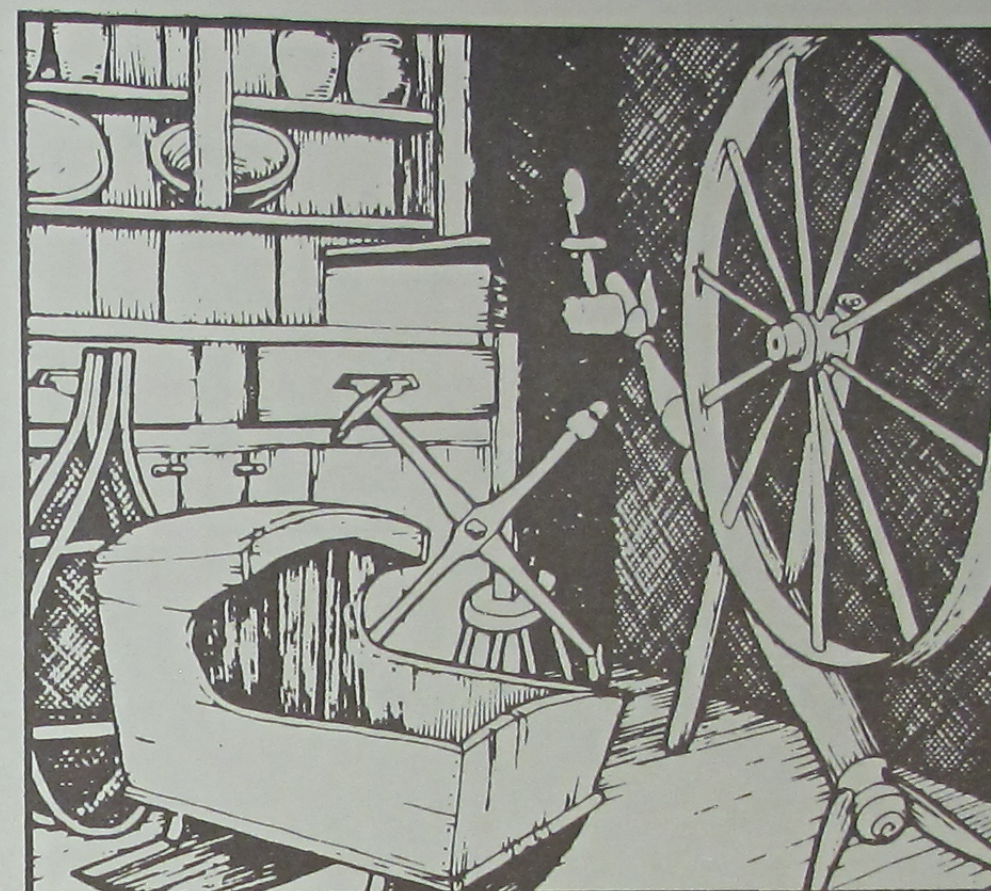

Le musée historique de Welland est un musée communautaire, à temps plein, sans but lucratif, géré par un conseil d'administration bénévole. Il est subventionné, en partie, par la ville de Welland, le ministère de la Culture et des Communications ainsi que par l'appui de ses membres.

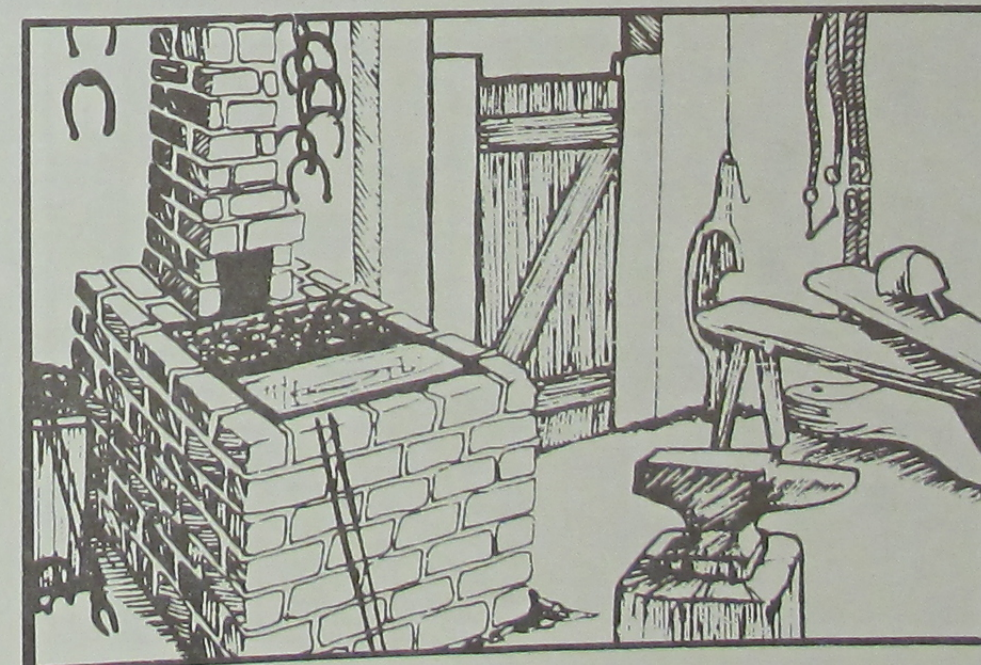

Situé au centre de la péninsule du Niagara, le musée occupe une école construite en 1914, le long d'une voie d'eau récréative, le canal Welland.

COLLECTION

Les collections en cours comprennent Welland et ses Canals, expliquant les effets des quatre canaux sur le développement de la ville, et la galerie Centre-Ville présentant des objets urbains du commencement du siècle.

Divers envois, faisant partie de la galerie de l'Histoire sociale de Welland suivent l'histoire du peuple de la région depuis les Indiens jusqu'à l'épanouissement industriel de la ville du 20^e siècle. Venez Découvrir! favorise davantage l'apprentissage individuel.

HOW TO RAISE A CROOK

IN 12 EASY LESSONS

1. Begin from infancy to give the child everything he wants. In this way, he will grow up to believe that the world owes him a living.
2. When he picks up bad words, laugh at him. It will encourage him to pick up "cuter phrases" that will blow the top of your head off later.
3. Never give him any spiritual training. Wait until he is 21, and then let him decide for himself.
4. Avoid the use of the word wrong. It may develop a guilt complex. This will condition him to believe later when he is arrested for stealing a car, that society is against him and he is being persecuted.
5. Pick up everything he leaves lying around--books, shoes, and clothes. Do everything for him so he will be experienced in throwing the responsibility on to others.
6. Let him read any printed matter he can get his hands on. Be careful the silverware and drinking glasses are sterilized but let his mind feed on garbage.
7. Quarrel frequently in the presence of the children. Then they won't be too shocked when the home is broken up.
8. Give the child all the spending money he wants. Never let him earn his own. Why should he have things as tough as you had them?
9. Satisfy his every craving for food, drink and comfort. See that every desire is gratified. Denial may lead to harmful frustration.
10. Take his part against the neighbours, teachers, and policemen. They are all prejudiced against your child.
11. When he gets into real trouble, apologize for yourself by saying, "I never could do anything with him."
12. Prepare for a life of grief--"You will have it."

ELEVENTH ANNUAL EXCITING TOUR of Country Homes in King Township

Thursday, June 2, 1977 10:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Sponsored by the YORK HUMANE GUILD of the York County Branch of the Ontario Humane Society

INFORMATION CENTRES

- 1.- Snowball Village - the Stable Gallery
 - 8. King Valley Ski Centre
- Washrooms available at both

2. RESIDENCE OF MR. & MRS. J. BIGONGIARI

Exotic appeal and rich colour characterize this house, due to the crimson floor tiles imported from Spain and Mexico; also the many embroidered cushions, tableclothes and linens brought from Hungary or designed by Mrs. Bigongiari, who is herself Hungarian. The handmade chandeliers are noteworthy, also the kitchen with its coloured pottery and built-in barbecues and the little girls' rooms in pale blue and pale green.

3. RESIDENCE OF MR. & MRS. PAUL CROCKER

This contemporary house in a new development surrounded by the real country of fields and trees manages in its decor and colour schemes to be both elegant and welcoming. The lighting fixtures are modern in design, unusual and charming; the same is true of the Scandinavian furniture. There are many unusual pictures large and small, some amusing, all interesting. This is above all a house to live in and enjoy.

4. CHRIST CHURCH - KETTLEBY

This small stone church surrounded by old maples has been a centre of community life since it was built in 1891. The Anglican congregation which was founded in 1866, met before that in the schoolhouse. Clergymen bearing the honoured names of Osler and Sibbald were early incumbents of this parish. The church has recently been repaired and redecorated. The Sanctuary lamp, a memorial gift, designed by Monica Harkay of Seneca College to fit the simplicity of the building, focuses interest on the chancel. Its ever-burning light symbolizes the church's vital place in the community.

The Women's Guild of Kettleby Church will hold a sale of home-baking on the lawn.

5. RESIDENCE OF MR. & MRS. VINCENT IANNELLO

Guarded by stone lions and decorated by stone fountain and urns, the entrance to this Italian-style house leads through carved wooden doors into a marble-paved hall. High marble stairs spiral to the second floor and wrought iron gates open into the living room. The colour is rich except where it is delicate, as in the beautiful bathroom and kitchen tiles. Noteworthy is the Spanish furniture and the many bowls, ewers and tureens in flower-wreathed Italian pottery.

6. FOXFIELD - MR. & MRS. BRIAN HERBINSON

Here an early Canadian farmhouse has been remodelled by architect Jim Murray into a spacious elegant small house. It is set in twenty acres of bush, to be opened up for riding and skiing. The whitewalls and serene subdued colours of the interior blend with the many views of the field and the forest. A living room with barn-siding interior walls has been added at a lower level. The thoroughbred and quarter houses are well worth a visit in their trim stable with its large lavishly equipped tack room.

7. SOMERSET FARM - MR. & MRS. J.I. JOHNSTON

A showing and sale of contemporary Canadian artists will be featured in the arena here. A small sale of paintings at our Christmas Tree Market last November aroused much interest. It was felt tour visitors also might be glad to see the variety of styles which the farms and woods of King Township have inspired.

Lemonade will be served here.

The arena only, not the house, will be open.

8. KING VALLEY SKI CENTRE

Beautiful Country Club in forest setting with stream and picturesque bridges. Here you will find a Bargain Counter, Collector's Corner, Flowers, Handicrafts, Books and Sherry.

LUNCHEON will be served here consisting of assorted sandwiches, salad, cakes and tea or coffee. Tickets $1.50 available when you order your tour tickets or on day of tour.

TWELFTH ANNUAL EXCITING TOUR

Places in King Township

Thursday, June 1, 1978 10:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Sponsored by the YORK HUMANE GUILD of the York County Branch of the Ontario Humane Society

INFORMATION CENTRES

1. Snowball Village - the Stable Gallery
2. King City Community Centre
Washrooms available at both.

The Tour will be centred in King City at the Community Hall where there is a large parking area. The York Humane Guild's boutiques and stalls for the sale of home-baking, plants, books, handicrafts and treasure trove will be in this building. A very attractive feature here will be a display and sale of paintings by four well-known local artists, a group whose members have all had one-man shows at the Snowball Gallery. These artists are Susan Hally, Helen Bird, Joanne Clarke and Jean Skoggard.

There will be a snack bar here for the sale of hot dogs, hamburgers and beverages. Tea will be available at the Crawford Wells store from 12:00 to 4:30 p.m. - consisting of - Tea Biscuit, Jam, Tea Loaf, Cookies and Tea for $1.75.

The old Hotel has been restored. It is now called Hogans at the Four Corners. Drinks and a gourmet lunch will be available here. If reservations are desirable call 833-5311 (local) or 832-1520 (no toll charge from Toronto).

All Saints Anglican Church, close by, has a new chapel and stained glass windows - well worth a visit.

3. WINCHMERE FARM - Mr. & Mrs. F.W. Davies

This old farmhouse, beautifully remodelled, has a most picturesque location, being separated from the road by a long narrow pond with a fountain. Inside, the conservatory, the old staircase and the pictures are noteworthy.

4. LANDMARK HOUSE - Mr. & Mrs. Gary Vogan

Perhaps the most original house on the tour, this also shows, in an entirely different style, what can be done to change what was once Kettleby Methodist Church. The tall pointed windows and balcony raised on huge barn rafters give it unique character. The interior, a mixture of Canadiana and 17th century Spanish art, will fascinate connoisseurs of the antique as will the kitchenful of old pots and pans. The driving shed is an antique shop where treasures, large and small, will be on display.

Lemonade, coffee and butter tarts will be available here.

5. BRUNSWICK HOUSE - Dr. & Mrs. Howard Young
Kettleby's red brick manor house, lavishly decorated with white "gingerbread" is just over 100 years old. Its present owners are the third family to live there since 1875. The exterior, and the garden with its four white lattice structures including the Gazebo are as they were from the first. The interior has been elegantly modernized and holds, besides antiques found in the house, modern treasures from Sicily, Greece, India and New Zealand.

6. RESIDENCE OF MR. LLOYD MACPHERSON

This very individual dwelling shows what can be done with a building converted from its original use for this was once Pottageville Church. The owner's hobby of Scottish heraldry is evident as soon as one steps inside the door, the display of Tartans giving the interior great colour and interest.

7. SCOTCH MIST - Mrs. Frances Wilson

This white and grey house in its woodland setting is on the site of one of the first Saw Mills in King township. The original property deed dates back to 1802. Its interior is a decorator's dream because Mrs. Wilson is herself a professional designer of interiors. Note especially the kitchen, and, outside the pavillion designed from the ruins of the old barn.

8. MARYLAKE-SHRINE AND MONASTERY OF THE AUGUSTINIAN FATHERS

Situated about one mile north of King City on Keele St., the impressive grounds and buildings here were once the property of Sir Henry Pellatt. The only building open to the public is the beautiful modern church, but it and the park-like grounds are not to be missed.

TICKETS $5.00
